Tokyo Individualized Educational Institute Announces the Opening of Two New Schools In Kansai Area

Tokyo Individualized Educational Institute, Inc. (TIEI) announces that the Company will open two new schools - "Kansai Individualized Educational Institute Sannomiya School (Kobe-shi, Hyogo)" and "Kansai Individualized Educational Institute Uehonmachi School (Osaka-shi, Osaka)" - on March 13, 2014 as follows.

The opening of both schools is based on the "Shining☆2015" medium-term management plan announced in October 2013. TIEI will operate schools in full-scale in Kansai by opening three schools including the "Kansai Individualized Educational Institute Tennoji School" to be opened on March 7 in populated areas near railway stations.

Including two new schools, the total number of schools directly operated by TIEI will be 211.

Seven new schools are scheduled to open during the fiscal year ending February 2015.
