Tokyo Individualized Educational Institute Announces the Opening of New School

Tokyo Individualized Educational Institute, Inc. (TIEI) announces that the company will open "Chitosefunabashi School (Setagaya-ku, Tokyo)" in December 2014 as follows.

This will be the 9th school to be opened during the fiscal year ending February 2015 including the 8th school using the new learning system which was announced on October 30. The number of openings exceeded the plan of 7 schools which was based on "Shining☆ 2015" medium-term management plan by 2 schools. TIEI believes that accelerating the pace of opening of new school will contribute to business growth for the next fiscal year onward.

Including the new school, the total number of schools directly operated by TIEI (1-2 style tutorial school) will be 216.

In addition, business forecast for the fiscal year ending February 2015 remains unchanged.
