

February 23, 2015

Tokyo Individualized Educational Institute Announces the Opening of New Schools

Tokyo Individualized Educational Institute, Inc. (TIEI) announces that the Company will open “Kawasaki Nishiguchi School (Kawasaki-shi, Kanagawa)” as new individualized educational school on March, 2015 as follows.

This will be the 219th school of TIEI’s individualized educational school. The number of openings already achieved the plan, which was based on “Shining☆2015” medium-term management plan by the end of the next fiscal year (Fiscal year ending February 2016).

According to the medium-term management plan, TIEI opened 22 schools from the fiscal year ended February 2013, and each school is showing steady growth for its number of new students and students enrolled. Opening of new school contributes to the TIEI’s sustainable and steady growth.

Tokyo Individualized Educational Institute Kawasaki Nishiguchi School

1) Date of opening: March 19, 2015

2) Address:

2F Taiyo Bldg., 3-3-1 Nakasaiwai-cho, Saiwai-ku, Kawasaki-shi, Kanagawa 212-0012
(6 minutes’ walk from JR Kawasaki Station, 9 minutes’ walk from Keikyu Kawasaki Station)

3) School Opening Outline

In this area, school-age population is rapidly increasing, and there are many schools. To meet the local customers’ needs with existing neighbor schools, TIEI decided to open the new school.